

Whittier Reads is Back!

Solito

"He esperado décadas por una memoria como Solito"
—Sandra Cisneros

JAVIER ZAMORA

Whittier Public Library and the Whittier Public Library Foundation present a series of programs based on

Solito

a memoir by Javier Zamora

"A gripping memoir... Solito is special for many reasons, but the main one is Zamora's voice and the energy of his vivid retelling of his journey... And that makes it required reading."

—Gabino Iglesias, NPR

Please see other side
for program listings.

Tickets are available at Central & Branch.

(Programs are subject to change.)

whittierlibrary.org
whittierplf.org

Tuesday, April 4

How to Prove You're Undocumented

Presented by Erick Galindo

Central • 6:00PM • Free

Thursday, April 13

Linguistic & Cultural Codes in Solito

Presented by Dr. Rafael Chabran

Central • 6:00PM • Free

Wednesday, April 19

Wednesday Night Book Group

Discussion on Solito

(Author will not be present)

Central • 6:00PM • Free

Tuesday, April 25

Solito from another perspective:

Interviewing Detained Immigrant children.

Presented by Dr. Kathie O'Gorman

Central • 6:00PM • Free

Thursday, April 27

Author Talk: Author Javier Zamora discussing his book Solito.

Location TBD • 5:00PM • Free

Thursday, April 27

Author Reception & Dinner

Central • 7:00PM

Catered by "What's That You're Cookin?"

Tickets $60 ($55 WPLF Members)

Programs are free with the exception of April 27th's Author Reception & Dinner. Tickets are available at both libraries starting on March 1st. Copies of Solito are available for checkout at both libraries.

