		Abstain and All Others in Favor. Motion Passes.
5. a. Review &amp; Comments on Coastal Landscape Services – Steven Rodriguez / Tyson	See Attached Monthly Report. Shane Cadman stated there is more graffiti activity. Steven Rodriguez agreed in the last seven months. There is nothing Coastal Landscape cannot handle. David Gonzalez agrees, likes the reports, and the owners are observing. David questioned the reporting process so Steven Rodriguez went over it.	5. a. No Action Taken
6. a. – d. Ambassador Program by Aleco – Steven Rodriguez / Carlos Lopez / Stephen Monroy	The Last report was discussed. Steven Rodriguez asked the Task Force about the RFP projectory. David Gonzalez stated the Task Force has met, including Justin Tipton and Cynthia Valenzuela with the WUA, and are gathering some city Ambassador examples such as Downtown Santa Monica and San Diego. The goal is to take what the City, City Hall, WUA, and UWIA want and put it together in a five-page outline. David Gonzalez stated the UWIA cannot put their logo on City signage. The City is doing as promised and putting up the additional signs. The floor was open for discussion. There were none. Task considered to be completed. There are still skateboarder issues. Shane Cadman asked with Aleco done on January 12th has anyone noticed changes. Stephen Ortiz stated he was in uptown last weekend and observed no changes. There are still a lot of skaters in uptown. No further discussion.	6. a. – d. No Action Taken
